GAY AT OLD BLUE RIDGE

The Season Brightens as it Takes its Flight There.

SOME NOTABLE GUESTS

Texas and Florida Have Contributed Liberally to the Charming Summer Colony at This Resort-Cards the Favorite Diversion.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BLUE RIDGE SPRINGS, September 11-The shady walks and green hillsides of beautiful old Blue Ridge Springs are still listening to the chatter of a big breezy autumn colony, who find September in the mountains the most delightful of all the months. There is a large and growing company of pleasure hunters, growing company of pleasure hunters, who come only in this month, to enjoy the crisp, bracing air, congenial company, and all the out-door sports, with none of the inconveniences that someof the inconveniences that someof those who make up this happy family are: Mrs. C. A. Mickels and Miss Parker, of Richmond, who are two of the most popular ladies of Blue Ridge. Airs. Nickels is the wife of Captain Nickels, the commander of the cruiser "Topeka." but this charming woman has an individuality all her own, due to her tact and brightness. That gallant and distinguished Virginia gentleman, Major E. M. Todd, with his wife and daughter, Miss Julia, form a popular trie from Smithfield, Va.

Va.

Major's fund of informalty, coupled his native wit, insures him an atve audience at all times. Miss Julia been the season's belle in the younger coupling. ays having a score of youthful attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Pressly and little Miss Marguerite Pressly, of Augusta. Ga., are always eagerly expected with the first of each September. They say no other month compares with this in the mountains. Mrs. Pressly must be acknowledged as one of the most beautiful of southern werners, and Mr. Pressly, one of the ablest years attorneys.

yeing attorneys.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McLemore, of Suffolk, Va.; are an ideal young couple, who add much to our pleasure.

Gay New York city is ably represented by Mr. John Langan, a gentleman who knows the world, books and men being a traveler, a reader and a student of human nature, as well as an expert horse-a traveler, a reader and a sexpert horseman.

THE TEXAS COLONY.

Galveston, Texas, has been most generous in sending a large percentage of charming people. Some of the charmed circle are Mrs. Breath, Mrs. Carrie Louise Breath, Mrs. Mensing, Miss Ella Monsing, Mrs. Zeigler, Mrs. Polk, Miss Annette Polk, Misses Margaret and Dalsy
Polk, Mrs. Stone, Mrs. Moody, Miss Rosa Moss and Colonel Spaight. Some are oldtimers at Blue Ridge and some newcomers, but all are warm admirers of this old mountain resort.

Florida, too, has her share of charming people, who contribute much to the natuum gayettes. They are Mr. and Mrs.
Winthrop, Miss Evelyn Winthrop, Messrs.
Gliman, Frank and Guy Winthrop, Mrs.
Randolph, Miss Mary Page Randolph and
Mr. Arthur Randolph, of Tallahasse.

The famous "Eastern Shore" of Virginia has been good in sending us Miss Florence Hrown, of Accomac.

SOME POPULAR VIRGINIANS.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Spratley are welcome additions from Norfolk, who spend a part of each season at Blue Ridge, Mrs. Spratley's pretty gowns are always streatly admired, as well as her charm of manner.

Quaint old Petersburg has been lavish handsome and gifted and popular le ladles.

James McDowell and Miss Ruth rell are recent additions to the colombia to the colo of Galveston, as bostess. Dainty refreshments and exquisite prizes were features of all three affairs.

An after-dance supper, given by Mr. John Langan, of New York, was one of the very enjoyable affairs of the week; while a bowling party on Wednesday morning, given by Mrs. and Miss Pol., afforded fun for a company of thirty-odd guests.

The evening hops make the ball-room still the center of attraction for youth and age.

and age.

The topic of interest just now is the "Gun Club" meet, which takes place here the latter part of the month.

Mr. "Brown is making elaborate preparations for this event, and will present the winners two handsome gold medals.

Arrivals continue and the dance goes merrily on.

IN OLD FLUVANNA

Many Summer Guests at Fork Union. Academy's Bright Prospects.

Many Summer Guests at Fork Union,
Academy's Bright Prospects,
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FORK UNION, VA., Sept. 12.—The social life of Fork Union has been delightful during the entire summer. The visitor has been in evidence to a somewhat extraordinary extent and many homes and boarding houses in the neighborhood have furnished pleasant refuges for many of those who fied from the city's heat.
Quite a group of boarders linger at "The Windsor," in Fork Union. They are the Whitehursts and Vaughans, of Norfolk and the Densons, of Baltimore, Mrs. Brent and daughter, of Richmond, have just left after a stay at the Windsor.
Colonel Cutchins and his family still linger at the old Oppenheimer homestead.
Hon, Walter E. Daniel and family and Mrs. Sydney, Allan and her children, of Weldon, N. C., who have been on a visit to Captain Charles G. Snead for some weeks, returned to the Old North State on Tuesday.

Dr. W. E. Hatcher, after attending great meetings in the Shenandoah Valley, at Waynesboro and Covinston, returned to Cauly Hall on last Friday. That night the doctor was taken seriously sick and was in the physician's hands for some time, but he was out yesterday.

Mrs. C. L. DeMott and children, of Charlottesyille, are at Canly Hall.
The situation at the Fork Union Academy is very lively. The inprovements in progress on the main building are approaching completion and it is agreed on overy side that the heididing, crowning as it does, on commanding heights, is an ornament to the county. Increased accommodations for about forty students laye been arranged for and new recitation and music rooms are 10 be provided. The members of the faculty have been appending the summer at different points, but they are already beginning to come in and everything is fast being made ready for the coming of the students.

Academy. C. Mitchell, of Richmond Col-prof. S. C. Mitchell, of Richmond Col-lege, is to make the leading address at the opening exercises of the Academy on Friday evening, September 25th.

LEXINGTON GAIETIES

Opening Hop at the Virginia Military Institute-Social Notes.

Opening Hop at the Virginia Military Irsiliute—Social Notes.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

1ENINGTON, VA., Sept. 12.—The opening hop at the Virginia Military Institute was danced Monday evening in the gymnsium. About twenty couples took part. The occasion was a most pleasant one, the first gayeties there since the commencement exercises last June.

Mrs. George W. Stevens eame up from her summer home on James River, "Glenker and the state of the commencement exercises last June.

Mrs. George W. Stevens came up from her summer home on James River, "Glenker and Miss Holen Stevens, Miss Hays, Miss Leary and Miss Morton, of Richmond. Among the other dancers were Miss Mary Kyle Enlinger, of Baltimore; Miss Mary Kyle Enlinger, of Baltimore; Miss Mary Kyle Enlinger, of Baltimore; Miss Neil Butler, of Rockbridge Faths; Miss Ross Tucker; Miss Neil Fachs; Miss Ross Tucker; Miss Neil Fordenbrough, Miss Louise Haskins, Miss Neils Dunlap and Miss Marke Lewis, of Lexington.

The claperones were: Mrs. Stavens, Mrs. Samuel B. Walker, Jr., Mrs. Robert L. Owen, Mrs. Archer Roberts and Miss Margie Freeland Miss Marke Lewis, of Lexington in G. McCormick, of New York, are visiting in Loxington this week.

Rev. Dr. Robert J. McBryde is in Blacks burg visiting his brother, Dr. McBryde is not believed institute.

Colonel L. G. Polk, a prominent railroad man of Toxas, was in Lexington this week tener a son at the Virginia Military Institute.

Miss Jonulo Crigler has returned to Farmwille for her second year at the State Female Normal College

Mr. W. G. McDowell, Jr., ins. accepted a position to teach at School of Maryland, situated near Cumboronad.

Dr. William E. Dold and two sons are visiting the family of Mrs. Calvin M. Dold.

DESERTED HAMMOCKS

Signs that Tell of Departure of Summer Guests.

Guests.

(Special to the Times-Dispatch.)

PROVIDENCE FORGE, Sept. 12.—Although the days continue bright and warm like summer, the autumn work of pulling fodder and cutting orn, soes steadily on, and the deep blush on the winesap apples remind us continually that frost is approaching. Most of those who spent the hot days of summer with friends in this community have cuttined to their city homes, and the swings, harmocks and rustic seats that were so much sought after a few weeks ago are now deserted.

Among those who left this week was Miss Paulino Jerdona, who has been spending the summer with he little cousins, Gladys and Miriam Coleman, at Stirling. She returned to Baltimore, Md., where she will pursue her studies. Bertha Deal, who have been visiting the Misses Christian, left Thursday for Newport Mrs. Roan Valentine and little daughter.

Christian, left Thursday for Newport News.
Mrs. Roan Valentine and little daughter. Joan Douglas, left Friday for their home in Washington.
Mrs. Valentine has been spending some time at Kaines, the country home of her uncle, General Douglas, and by her charming manners has made many warm friends, who regret to see her Ko.
Miss Grace Christian left to-day for Norfolk, where she has gone to train for a nurse. Miss Christian is quite a favorite in this neighborhood and her departure is greatly regretted by her many friends.

SYDNOR & HUNDLEY, Broad Street Furniture Palaces.

Headquarters for cheerful, and prices marked in plain figures, which you can tell husband, father, or the other fellow, and they will look pleasant when you do. And just here let us say, while we carry the finest goods made in every line, we pay just as much attention and give as much thought to our line of MEDIUM-PRICED GOODS, as the fine, and they are, in proportion, the same values.

SYDNOR & HUNDLEY, 709-11-13 E. BROAD ST.

Belle at Jefferson Park Hotel.

SUCCESSFUL AUTUMN AT SEASON

Jefferson Park Reached High Water Mark Past Summer.

ARE LEAVING WITH REGRET

Among the Lingering Guests Are Rev. Peyton H. Hoge, of Louisvill, Four Daughters and a Son-A Goodly List of Others.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) JEFFERSON PARK HOTEL, VA., Sep-12.-September brings many to the circle at Jefferson Park. Many of the August guests have returned to their homes, but a goodly number remain to enjoy the autumn beauties of home from the higher mountain resorts find it pleasant to stop by here a while they meet with such a warm welcome, and are made to feel at home the most successful season in its existence. Pleasant memories of the place the hostesses, Mrs. F. T. Boykin and E. A. Robinson, will long remain in the minus of those who from time to time during the summer have formed parts of the

INTERESTING PARTY An interesting party here now is com posed of Rev. Peyton H. Hoge, of Louisville. Ky., and his four daughters and tractive young lady, with golden hair and

POSTERS,

35 CTS. EAGH.

Did you ever think that for every $88,20 you spend in eash with us you get $100.00 worth of FURNITURE, and our prices are JUST AS LOW (and sometimes lower) as any other house in the South.

Our stores, just now, are things of beauty, and one gazes in astonishment as he or she strolls through them, at the yust display of everything that goes to make home happy and cheerful, and prices marked in plain figures, which you can tell target and prices marked in plain figures, which you can tell target are interest.

Among the latest arrivals are: Miss

LATE ARRIVALS.

LATE ARRIVALS.

Among the latest arrivals are: Miss Vera Pettit, Palmyra, Va.; Miss Clara Pettit, Palmyra, Va.; Paul Pettit, Palmyra, Va.; George E. urcis, Wawnesboro, Va.; M. H. Langhorne, Greenwood, Va.; Miss Parker Hernden, Fredericksburg, Va.; Miss Kate H. Armistead, Danville, Va.; N. L. Massey, Richmond, Va.; Tate F. Chenery, Ashland, Va.; S. P. Barksdale, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. George E. Purvis, Waynesboro, Va.; Mrs. J. M. Heck, Ralejen, N. C.; Miss Heck, Ralejen, N. C.; Mrs. W. H. Perkins, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. W. H. Perkins, Richmond, Va.; Raleigh, N. C.; Miss Heck, Raleigh, N. C.;
Mrs. W. H. Perkins, Richmond, Va.;
Grace Perkins, Richmond, Va.; Miss Susle
McGee Heck, Raleigh, N. C.; Ceell E.
Bertie, Staunton, Va.; Miss Virginia
Hoge, Louisville, Ky.; Bessie Hoge,
Louisville, Ky.; Cary Hoge, Louisville,
Ky.; Mrs. D. A. Frederick, Washington, D. C.; Miss Dora Frederick, Washington, D. C.; Affred Frederick, Washington, D. C.; Peyton H. Hoge, Louisville, Ky.; William L. Hoge, Louisville, Ky.;
Miss Mary B. Hoge, Louisville, Ky.;
W. Johnson and wife, Fort Monroe, Va.;
Mrs. B. H. Nash, Richmond, Va.; Mrs.
T. S. Garnett, Morfolk, Va.

OLD SWEET

Restful Days Follow the Midsummer Whirl.

GCLF NOW IN HIGH FAVOR

Family Parties in the Cottages Enjoy the Quiet and Beauty of the Autumn. A Wedding Will Be the Last Bright Event of the Season.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SWEET SPRINGS, W. VA., September 12.-The autumn days are here; leaves are beginning to turn, and the mountains be fore long will be glorious in red and gold foliage. The weather is ideal and the guests who remain find the restful quiet of the place refreshing now that the crowd is thinning out and the whirl of Long walks are the order of the day still has its votaries. A great many peo ple have learned to swim this st There has been no swimming master, but friends who could swim taught friends some fair and kindly young teachers for the ladies' pool.

In the parlor each evening usually finds eables of card-players; in the daytime eables of card-players; in the daytime players are yet to be found on the lawn. FAMILY PARTIES.

Monday Dr. McCaw, Mr. and Mrs. Davenport and Misses Davenport leave for Richmond. Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Talley, Miss Talley and Miss Tompkins, take their departure for Millboro, Va., whee they will remain a few weeks before going to Richmond.

Catchings' Corner, in Centralia, is one going to Richmond.

Catchings' Corner, in Contralia, is one of our meriest and "homiest" quarters in the evenings. Mrs. Catchings, Miss Catchings, Miss Gladys Catchings and Mr. Waddill Catchings will remain here for some time.

The Palmos and Elebert (Catchings)

The Paines and Fishers, of Galveston The Paines and Fishers, of Galveston, are among those who will stay later. Dr. Fisher, one of the most prominent physicians of Galveston, has been here recently to wist his family and take a needed holiday. At present one of the most distinguished physicians of Texas is a guest, Dr. Paine, of Galveston; he is at the head of the department of obstetries and gynaccology in the University of Texas; visitor to St. Mary's Hospital and consulting surgeon of the Union Pacific Railroad.

The springs will be open till October ist. A number of guests will remain till within a few days of that time.

A number of guests will remain till within a few days of that time.

A WEDDING \(^1\)
A wedding will be the last bright event of this season at Old Sweet Springs. On September 20th, Mr. Horace Bell and Miss Mamle B. Smith will be married in the parlors here under a big white belt, with many members of the class of Smith and Bell and numerous friends gathered about them. The bride, on her mother's side is a member of the well known Dunwody family of Georgia, and is a very pretty and lovely young ladv. A fine business position in the middle West is seeking Mr. Bell, and he will probably take his bride away from Virginia. Both these young people have made warm friends here this summer.

MINE HOST.

The season has been a nost successful one, and many summer reservis are bidding for the services of Manager J. W. Bell next summer. He and Mrs. Bell have made their guests comfortable in hotel and cottages; and have set before them such a table as the most exacting germands among us have heartily commended. They have the thanks and good wishes of all who have been their guests this summer.

Orange Items

Grange Hems.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ORANGE, VA., Sept. 12.—The Reanoke Bridge Company is now engaged in erecting an iron bridge over the creek about one mile east of hers to replace the wooden one recently washed away.

Mr. W. A. Rudastil has sold his farm containing 25 acres, situated on the italicating flower and the containing 25 acres, situated of this place to Mr. Wm. M. Powell, of Madison gounty, for $5,009.

ROUNDING OUT A SEASON

The Mecklenburg Makes Fine Record for a Youngster.

A GAY WEEK FOR GUESTS

Many Gather at This Splendid Hostelry for the Delights of Autumn-Friday Evening German Well Attended-Coaching.

THE MECKLENBURG, CHASE CITY, ... September 12.—September promises be a popular month at this resort. While many of the summer guests have left during the past two weeks, there have been equally as many arrivals to enjoy the charming fall days. The fall season will complete the first year during which the Meckienburg has opened its doors to the public, and the number the second prize was won by it. Aleman.

Rev. Kimball, of Maryland, made an appropriate and interesting address to the Knights.

The day's program was concluded by a ball, worthy of mention, as the famous orkney ballroom was graced by a gulaxy of beauty. Among the late arrivals are E. V. Blackmore, of Berkley, Va.; W. H. Davis and wife, of Norfolk, Va.; Miss Ethel Davis, of Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. L. E. Dodge, of Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. L. E. Dodge, of Norfolk, Va.; C. W. Burlow, Mt. Jackson, Va.; Charles Rosenberger, Mt. Jackson, Va.

INTERMONT HOTEL

Crowds Will Be Found There Until Far in the Month of October. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) COVINGTON, VA., September 12.-All is still life and activity at the Intermont. year round, and the house will be well filled far into October.

The recent Bal Poudre was a grand success. There were about sixly couples on the floor. Delicious refreshments added to the pleasure of the occasion.

Friday night there was a masquerade which was also among the big events of the season.

Mrs. A. D. Tapscott and her charming daughter, Miss Ballie Tapscott, have left for their home in Newport News, to the regret of all.

Among the guests now at the Intermont

LONG SEASON AT

of friends it has made gives very flattering promise for its future.

Last week was a particularly gay ono. The Friday evening german was 'attended by a number of young people from the neighboring towns. Frominent among those present were Miss Lucle Morton, Keysville; Miss Fay Parker, Suffolk; Miss Alma Elam, Suffolk; Miss Belle Powell, Emporia: Miss Tilly Powell, Miss Alma Elam, Suffolk; Miss Belle Powell, Emporia: Miss Tilly Powell, Miss Taggle, Texas; Miss Bower, Kentucky; Misses Rachel Gilmore, Ireno Jeffries, Miss Mary Burwell, Miss Janbel Norvell, of Chase City; Dr. Thompson Morton, Keysville; Mr. Taylor Jackson, Boydton; Mr. Hobson Norvell, Virginia; Mr. Ed. Henry, Norfolk; Mr. Charles Flaulkner, Richmond; Mr. Donald Blair, Richmond; Mr. Roberts, Mississippi; Mr. Haskins Ferrell, Chase City; Mr. George R. Gilmore, Mr. Tom Haskins, Mr. Levin Farls, Mr. Walter Goods, Dr. Traynham, Chase City, COACHING PARTY.

A large coaching party from Boyton spent a very pleasant day here on Monday, Their afternoon was occupied in strolling through the cool and picturesque grove, that is the delight of all the guests of the Mecklenburg, while those inclined to more vigorous exercise found it at the bowling allies. In the evening a dance was given in their honor.

Miss May Davis and Mr. Stove Davis entertained at dinner on Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nelms and Miss Isabel Norvell, of Chase-City.

Mrs. George B. Finch, of Boyton, who chaperoned a party of young people here last aweek, also entertained at dinner a number of her Mecklenburg friends.

"Mr. Russell Haskins, of Boyton, who chaperoned a party of young people here last aweek, also entertained at dinner a number of her Mecklenburg friends.

"Mr. Russell Haskins, of Boyton, who chaperoned a party of young people here last aweek, also entertained at dinner a number of her Mecklenburg friends.

"Mr. Party Jr., Miller, T. N. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Trout, Mr., and Mrs. Charles Winfreo, W. A. Hiss Ceorge G. Mosely, Mississippi; C. W. Westbury, H. T. Jackso

SOCIAL LIFE IN CHARLOTTE

A Wedding the Leading Feature of the Week.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTE, N. C., September 12.-Miss Helen Liddel entertained several of her young friends Friday evening with a break ride. After the ride a delightful lunch was served at her home on East Dearborn, Georgia.

To Mother.

Though you smile, now and then, at re-pariee
And seem from all care to be free,
I know that at heart you are grieving,
My own dearest mother, for me.

But don't let my absence annoy thee, Or shadow your face for the while, Just think of our own meeting, mother, And then, dear, I know you will smile.

So while you are there with our loved ones.

Lad your heart in all seeming be free,
Wear a smile on your cheeks, dear moth-

And veil all your sorrow for me,

I can see you all gathered at home, Every known face I can see; They all wear a smile, but, mother, Your own face is shadowed for me.

Avenue,
Mayor P. M. Brown, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Carrie Marshall Brown, arrived home Wednesday'night from New York. Miss Brown has just returned from an extended tour in Europe,
The Mocklenburg Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, met with Mrs.
P. C. Brunson, on East Avenue, Thursday afterpoon. Little Miss Emma Ross Leslie gave a Little Miss Emma Ross Leslie gave a party to her little friends at her grand-father's residence Tuesday afternoon from 5 to 7 o'clock. It was in the nature of a furewell to her friends, as she and her mother leave soon to join Mr. Leslie in New York, where they will make their home in the future.

The Ladjes' Ald Society of East Avenue Tabernacle served cream and cale on home in the future.

The Ladies' Ald Society of East Avenue Tabernacie served cream and cake on the chruch lawn Friday evening.

The social event of the Week was the marriage Thursday evening of Miss Frances Modden and Mr. Albert T. Summey. The wedding took place at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Modden, on North Tryon Street, at 8:30 o'clock, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. E. H. Harding, of Farmyille, Va. Misses Ella and Midge McAden acted as bridesmalds. The wedding was informal, and only the relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties were present. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for an extended bridat trip North.

Mrs. J. A. Jones gave a porch party Menday night, complimentary to her sister, Miss Susie Hooper, at her beautiful new home on South Tryon Street.

A branch of the Audubon Society for Mecklenburg county was organized at the Jooms of the Southern Manufacturing Club in this city, Monday night.

ORKNEY SPRINGS

Many Guests Linger for the Delights of Autumn.

ORKNEY SPRINGS, VA., Sept. 12.—
The advent of September finds many suests still arriving at Orkney Springs. The last few days have warned the vity folk? that the summer is not gone, and the mountain resorts assure them of comfort and pleasure, as well as relief from the intense heat. The usual round of galety occupies the days and evenloge. A large coaching party spont Friday driving to and from North mountain from which a grand view of the Shenford which was a shenford which which which was a shenford which which was a shenford whi view of the valleys and plains of West Virginia. This is considered one of the finest drives, around Orkney, and the scenery is unsurpassed.

The straw-ride, contemplated for Thursday night, was a source of great pleasure, in anticlipation, but was deferred on account of the weather, as the clouds were too low for comfort, the party avering they would be lost in the fog or night, but the optamist declared that was the desire of most by the young people, who were still watching for a breeze to wift the ominguis clouds away. CHALYBEATE who were still watching for a breeze to waft the ominute clouds away. The progressive cuchre, given Friday night by Miss Florence Hopkins and Miss Louise Smith of Washington, was a delightful affair. The first prizes were awarded to Mrs. H. M. Willis and Mr. Spramy, both of Washington, D. C. The grand tournament and ball on Salurday drew a large crowd. The day was most auspicious, the veil of morning mist lifted and the sun shone forth in all her glory. The first on the programm was the "barrel race," which elicited great applicates and laughter, the honors and bouquets being showered on the leading contestants, Mr. Allyne Shackelford and Mr. Bernard Klawans, of Washington, D. C.

The first brize in the tournament was won by B. N. Siegler, of Mt. Jackson; the seen prize was won by R. N. Heishman.
Rev. Kimball, of Maryland, made an A Merry Party Keep the Ball Constantly Rolling.

BEAVER DAM FALLS PICNIC

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lee Valentine Gave a Merry Hay Ride to Peter's Mountain-Many Private Entertainments Beguile the While.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SWEET CHALYBEATE SPRINGS. eptember 12.—The season continues gay here, and during the past week an un number of private entertainments have been given. Some guests who have missed in the "400." "the smart set" and "The Climbers," but others have arrived to fill up the vacancies. The hotel is well filled, and a large number will remain during the entire month and some Ingering until November. The bracing air keeps all in good spirits, and many are busy in playing cards, bowling, riding and driving.

HAY RIDE.

HAY RIDE.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lee Valentine, of Richmond, entertained their friends Wednesday afternoon on a hay ride to Peter's mountain. About fifteen were seated on the hay and a joily ride was enjoyed. After reaching the summit of the mountain and the beautiful view of the valies enjoyed, leed watermelons were served. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hughes, Mrs. Charles Webster, Misses Kate Roy, Lillian and Midred Kensitt, Maggaret and Alice Old, Lottie Hodges, Anne Henry, Messrs. B. A. Marsden, Pelham Blackford and Tyler Brock. Brock.

PICNIC BY STAGE.

The recent Bal Poudre was a grand success. There were about sixty couples on the floor. Delicious refreshments added to the pleasure of the occasion.

Friday night there was a manquerate which was also among the big events added which was also among the big events of the season.

Mrs. A. Tapecott and her charming daughter, Miss Ballle Tapscott, have left for their home in Newport News, to the reflect of the reflect of

Among the guests who arrived las week were Messrs, C. E. Kennison, Joh Dobson, L. S. Binson, and F. B. Enslow of Huntington, W. Va.; Misses Appling North Carolina; J. W., Easley, Winston, Nr. C.; Mrs. Frances Parker, Miss Jeannette Parker, Miss Flora Parker, Mrs. Wilsan, Arthur C., Thomson and wife, o. Frank Parker, Cincinnati, O.; Thomas R., Renner, Mrs. T. B. Renner, Miss Renner, Lexington, Ky; Mr, and Mrs. Frank Wilson, John B. Dearborn, Mrs. John B. Dearborn, Mrs. John B. Dearborn, Mrs. John B. Dearborn, Georgia. John P. McNell, of Ohio; H. W. Tucker, of Cincinnati Miss Mary McCauloy, df Atlanta, Ga.; Miss Lottle Hodges, of Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. H. C. Gridley, Master Lee Gridley, Mrs. H. T. Anderson, of Paes Christian, Miss.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smythe, of Charleston, S. C.; W. P. Stone and son, of Franklin, Ind.; H. R. Morrison, Virginia; Miss. Trimble, Staunton, Va.

Registration Board.

Registration board.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ROXDURY VA. Sept. 12:—The registration board of Harrison District.
Charles City county, will meet for the registration of voters Reptember 22. 1913 at Roxbury and September 23 at Bradley's Store.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Maraton have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Irene Marston to Mr. M. Morther Stoddard. The coronony will take blace at Mt. Pleasant Church next Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock. There have been no invitations issued.

ON GROCERIES MONEY SAVED

One Pound of 15c Coffee Given Free With Cna Pound of Our 40c Tea.

reakfast Bacon, lb	1-2C.	Pura Butcher s Date, 10
terd Cooked How th 13	1-2c.	Good Lard, lb 9 1-2C.
nglish Shoulders, lb	1-2¢,	31/4 lbs, Salt Pork25c.
		Double only Office

Fine Elgin Buttar, per Pouna, only 25c.

Orenmery Butter......15c. Lemons, por dozen.......15c.

THE AUGUST GROCERY COMPANY,

611 E. Marshall, 722 W. Cary,

Phone 1232,

18th and Main.

Phone 354,

Phone 1997.